

1 MUSIC: WILKO JOHNSON AND IAN SIEGAL The phenomenal guitarist and founding member of Dr Feelgood heads the bill after a long career spanning 37 years that includes a stint with Ian Dury and the Blockheads. The Caves, Niddry Street, 7pm, £17.50, 0131-557 8989

2 NEW WORKS: Now in its third year at the Traverse, New Works is a groundbreaking new writing project between the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland (previously RSAMD) and Playwrights' Studio, Scotland. Four of Scotland's top playwrights have been commissioned to write new plays, working with performers and directors of the Masters Classical and Contemporary Text programme of Scotland's national conservatoire. Traverse, Cambridge Street, 8pm, £6 (£4), 0131-228 1404

3 THE EDINBURGH QUARTET: With its distinguished international profile, the Edinburgh Quartet is Scotland's premier string quartet. Resident at the Ian Tomlin School of Music, Napier University, and at the University of Glasgow, it is one of the UK's longest established university-based professional quartets and is Scotland's only full time chamber ensemble. Brunton Theatre, Musselburgh, 7.30pm,

£13.75 (£11.75; Supper & Concert £23.75 (£21.75), 0131-665 2240

4 KES: Kes is the story of one boy's heart. How it came to beat and how it came to break. Based on Barry Hines' A Kestrel for a Knave and adapted by Rob Evans. Brunton Theatre, Musselburgh, 2.30pm, 7.30pm, £6 (family ticket £22), 0131-665 2240

5 CINEMA: FINAL DESTINATION 5 (15) Sam (Nicholas D'Agosto) organises a staff away day for his colleagues, who include on-off girlfriend Molly (Emma Bell), best friends Peter (Miles Fisher) and Nathan (Arlen Escarpeta), sleazy Isaac (P J Byrne) and Olivia (Jacqueline MacInnes Wood). All is well until the bus they're travelling on gets stuck in traffic on a suspension bridge. Sam has a premonition about his friends' impending doom and as his daydream comes to an end, Sam realises what he saw in his mind's eye and hurries his friends off the bus. Sceptical at first, they soon start following when cracks appear in the road and all make it to safety. Death has been cheated once again, and Death doesn't like that. Very quickly Sam and his friends are under threat... General release, various cinemas, times and prices

